

Just Imagine –

- A large and modern country “Homestead” on
- 10 acres of wooded farmland, not far from a river, with
- A “Guest House” in the garden.

Add to that –

- “A Host family” willing to share the home with
- “Guests” and
- “Staff” - who are there to support the guests.

Now imagine that Luke is one of those guests, and that the host family is real, the house is real, the land is real, and the staff are there - all set and ready to go.

Too good to be true ?

... time to turn the page ...

...THIS IS THE REALITY...
